At the airport

5 Complete the dialogue with the words in the list.
 gate control lounge desk

A Let's go straight to the check-in (1) desk.
 Then we won't have to carry these heavy suitcases any more.
 B OK. After security (2) control, we can do some shopping!
 A Great! Right, our boarding (3) gate is number 52. Remember that!
 B Let's find the shops now and then sit in the departure (4) lounge.

Phrasal verbs: Travel

6 Complete the texts with the correct forms of the phrasal verbs.

I'd like to go to university next year to study journalism. When I finish, I want to (1) go on and become a journalist. University will be very different from school, but I'm sure I'll (2) fit in. I'm a very sociable person. In my chosen profession, I may have to live abroad for a while, which will make me (3) grow up, and become more responsible. No doubt I'll also (4) build up lots of contacts, which will be useful for my articles. Last week I (5) went away to Oviedo for a few days to visit my family there. We (6) set off early in the morning because our flight was at 9 am. A taxi (7) picked us up at my house at 6.30 am and (8) dropped us off at the airport just before 7 am. Unfortunately, it wasn't a direct flight. We (9) stopped off in Madrid and didn't get to Oviedo until 1 pm.

Word-building: Compound adjectives

7 Complete the story using a word from A and a word from B to make compound adjectives.

A	English-	half-	fast-	low-	multi-	self-	two-
B	board	catering	cost	cultural	minute	speaking	star

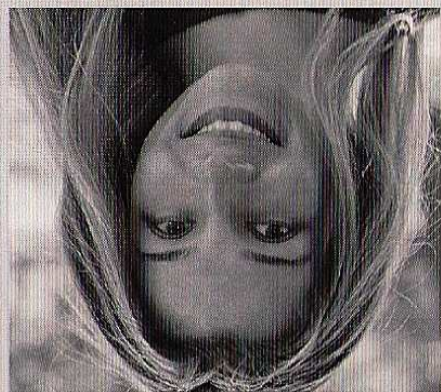

I nearly didn't go on holiday last year. It was a last-minute decision. At the end of July, I booked a cheap flight with a (1) low-cost airline, and went to London. I managed to find accommodation in a (2) two-star hotel not too far from the centre. It was (3) half-board – breakfast and evening meal – and I usually had a sandwich for lunch. I didn't realise London was such a (4) multi-cultural city. I heard so many different languages that I didn't think that I would meet any (5) English-speaking people at all. Eventually, I met some other students like me. They were staying in (6) self-catering accommodation, which was much cheaper as they did all their own cooking.

STEP 3 CONSOLIDATE

8 Complete the expressions with the words in the list.

baby	clock	composition	holiday	lesson	meal

9 Complete the text with the words in the list.

abroad customs flight foreign homesick hometown inhabitants journey mother tongues travel trip ultimately

My hometown is a little village in the middle of Spain. It's quite boring and I dream about (1) foreign countries. I've never actually been (2) abroad – the farthest I've been was a school (3) trip to Granada. I'd love to go on a long train (4) journey across Russia, or take a (5) flight from India to China and look out of the window onto the Himalayas. I just want to (6) travel and meet the (7) inhabitants of far lands, experience their local (8) customs and hear them speak their (9) mother tongues. (10) Ultimately, I'm a romantic and I'd probably feel (11) homesick as soon as I left home.
